DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claim 1 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Vadseth (4,910,649).
4. "A cargo lamp assembly for vehicles" has not been given patentable weight because the recitation occurs in the preamble. A preamble is generally not accorded any patentable weight where it merely recites the purpose of a process or the intended use of a structure, and where the body of the claim does not depend on the preamble for completeness but, instead, the process steps or structural limitations are able to stand alone. See In re Hirao, 535 F.2d 67, 190 USPQ 15 (CCPA 1976) and Kropa v. Robie, 187 F.2d 150, 152, 88 USPQ 478, 481 (CCPA 1951).

Vadseth discloses an light source having an aperture for emitting a light beam in an arc of about 120 degrees in horizontal and vertical planes(fig 5, light emission surrounding light source 5 appears to be emitted in an arc of about 120 degrees) and a lens(17) for receiving the beam and reducing the beam to 20 degrees(21) in the horizontal and vertical plane. Vadseth does not disclose the lens reducing the beam to about 60 degrees in a horizontal and vertical plane as well as disclosing the light source is a white LED.

- With regards to the light source being a white LED, the examiner takes Official Notice that the use of LEDs is old and well known in the illumination art. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to substitute an LED for the light source in the system of Vadseth. One would have been motivated since LEDs are recognized in the illumination art to have many desirable advantages, including reduced size, high efficiency, low power consumption, long life, resistance to vibrations, and low heat production, over other light sources.
- With regards to the lens of Vadseth reducing the beam in a horizontal and vertical plane to about 60 degrees, It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art as the time the invention was made to do so since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only ordinary skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233. In this case, applicant has not disclosed in the specification the criticality of reducing the angle to about 60 degrees in the horizontal or vertical, therefore, one of ordinary skill would have been motivated to modify the lens of Vadseth to reduce the light emission to about 60 degrees to illuminate a desired area within the 60 degrees which would provide a wider range of illumination than that of Vadseth.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 8-10 are allowed.
6. Claims 2-7 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The prior art cited does not anticipate individually nor teach in combination the limitations regarding the light emission as modified by the lens in claims 2,8,9 and 10.
